Under US trademark law, a mark which is "primarily merely a surname" cannot be protected as a trademark without proof that it has "acquired distinctiveness." A mark is considered to be "primarily merely a surname" if its primary impact or impression on the purchasing public is that of a mere surname and not a trademark ... Jun 6, 2013

Just trying to save y'all money time and embarrassment !! You can only patent and trademark a logo not a name and Especially when it's my last name !! Tracy y'all lawyers are not smart at all !! If they told you y'all have a lawsuit then they are taking your money !! You have to remember I have the founders blessing and that's the most powerful thing you can have !!

I can also use this as well !!
(The Hutchins BBQ)
believe me I was honest ~~and open about everything~~

to this group !! It's just sad how bad it makes y'all look when I start hearing y'all are suing me !! Tracy I walk away from a 27 million a year business without a lawsuit !! Because I was told it could destroy the business with the way I had to do it !! But when I was told I could open a Hutchins bbq !! Well that made my day !!! Look enough is enough !! It's my name I help start it all and I will do what I want when I want !! Look just because Tim turned into a greedy monster and tried to steal
